

Civil Rights in Child Nutrition Programs

This online training is part of a series of online trainings designed for experienced sponsors of the Summer Food Service Program in Kentucky. Sponsors who choose to receive their training via the online training are responsible for adhering to the information presented in this training. Please address all questions to the State Agency.

What are Civil Rights?

“Civil rights” are the rights of individuals to receive equal treatment (and to be free from unfair treatment or “discrimination”) in a number of settings -- including education, employment, housing, federal child nutrition programs and more -- and based on certain legally-protected characteristics.

Child Nutrition Programs are federally funded programs and as such, must ensure that all individuals for whom the program is intended, have access to the program free from discrimination.

What is Discrimination?

Discrimination is defined as different treatment which makes a distinction of one person or a group of persons either intentionally by neglect or by action or lack of actions based on any persons or group who has characteristics for which discrimination is prohibited based on the law, regulation, or executive order.
